

Putting financial best practices to work

The Osborne Group financial professionals add value during interim assignments in senior finance positions, managing critical projects or conducting policy and process audits. These highly experienced financial executives don't just propose solutions – they plan the implementation and execute the plan, helping you develop and sustain a sound financial structure for your organization.

John Alton

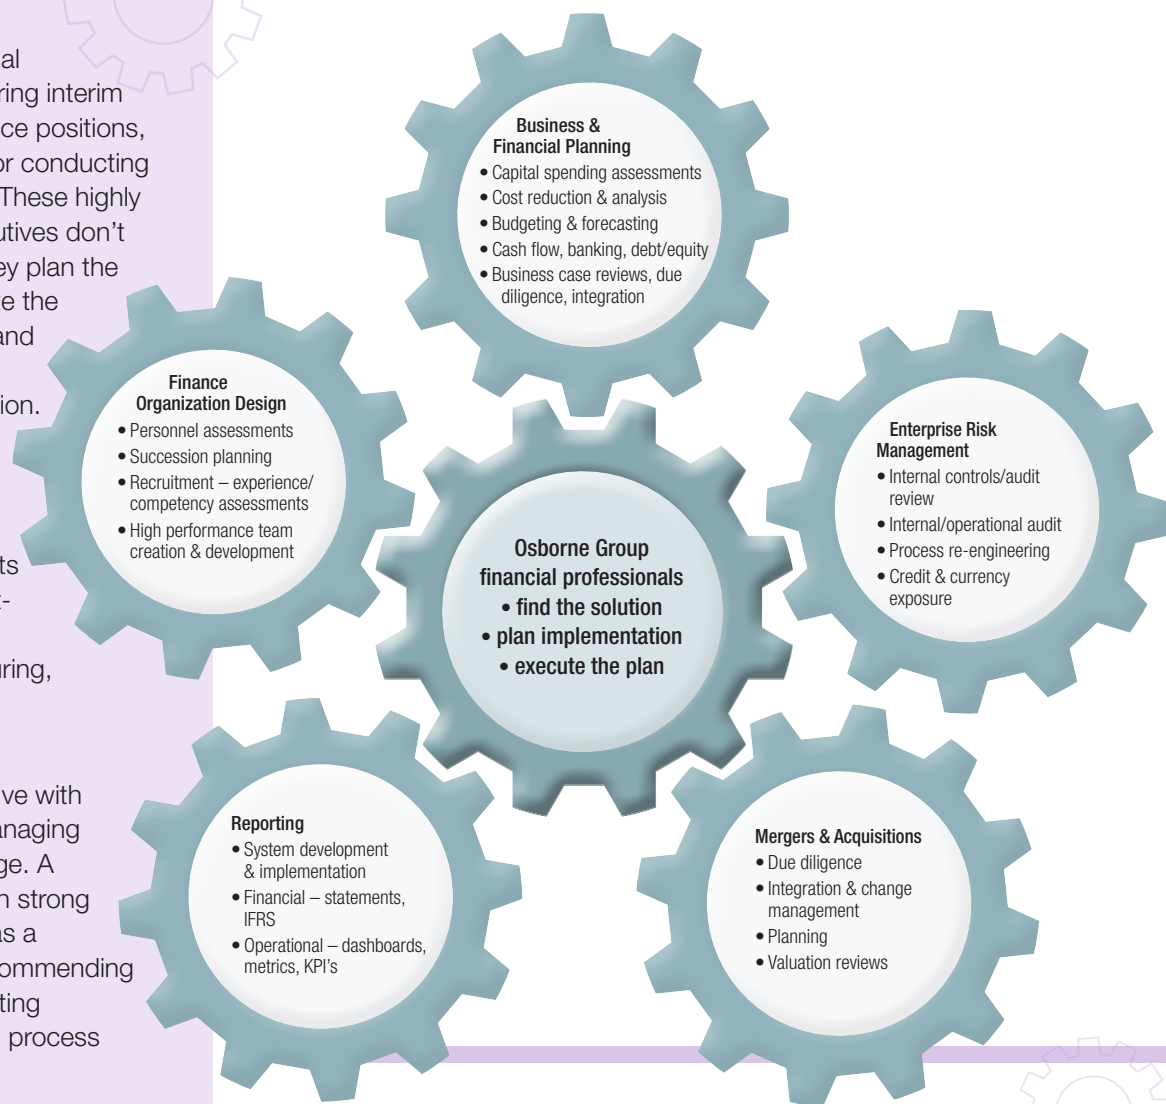

An experienced accountant and controller with major accomplishments in the private sector in start-up operations, corporate development with restructuring, and operational reviews.

Ken Goodwin

A strategic financial executive with hands-on experience in managing business growth and change. A skilled project manager with strong analytical expertise, Ken has a consistent track record recommending and successfully implementing significant improvements in process and technology.

Harold Hay

An action oriented, financial executive with significant "hands on" experience providing strategic and tactical financial leadership in a variety of scenarios. Harold's active, results focused orientation and critical thinking approach have enabled him to become a trusted advisor and partner to Presidents, CEOs and other senior managers.
