

Maximizing the IT Function through Strategic Alignment

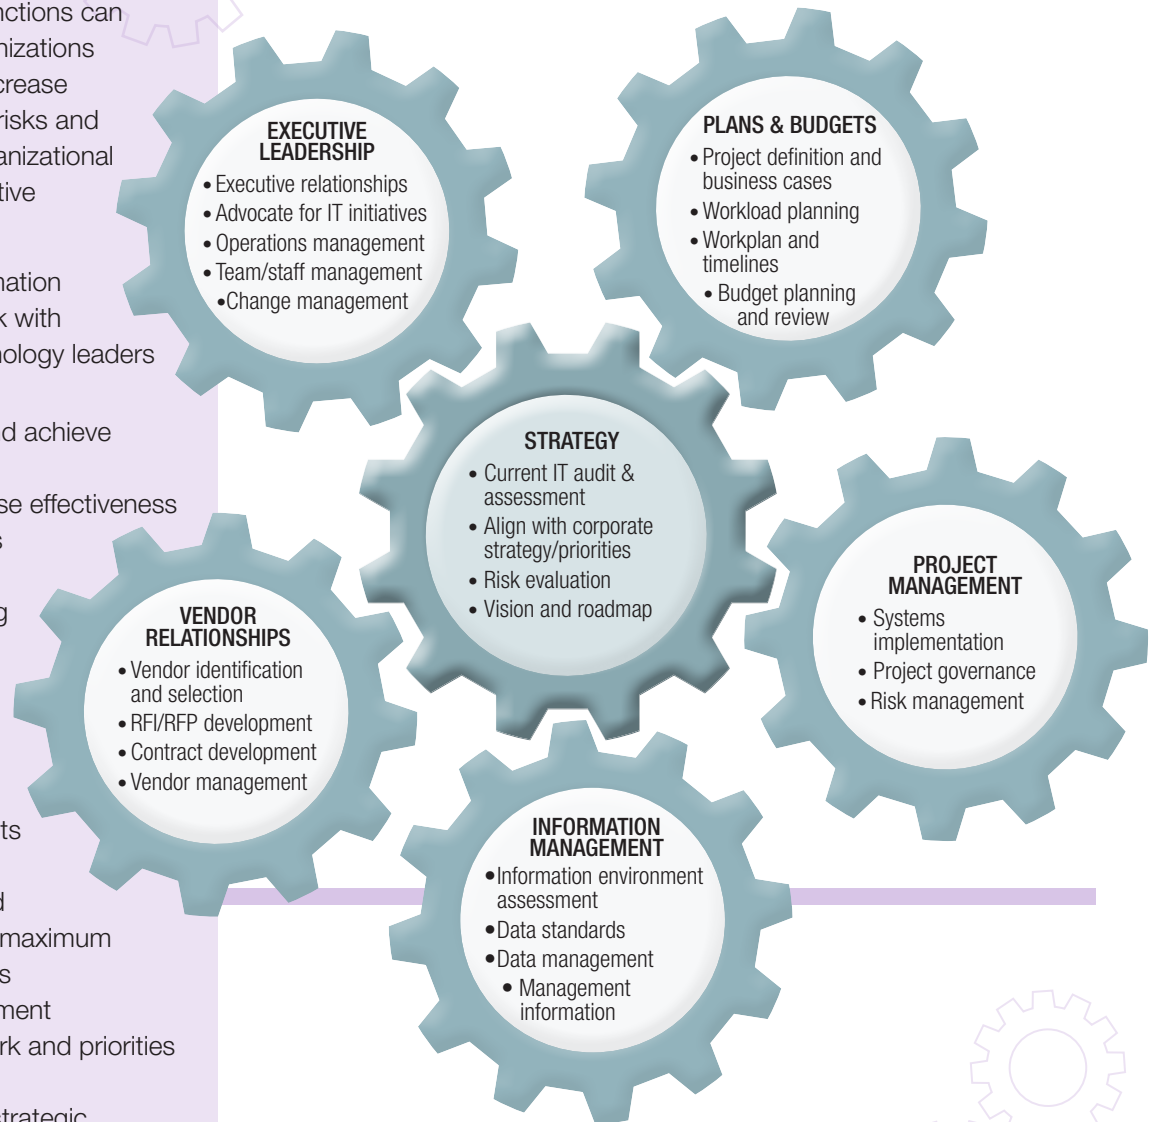

Information Technology functions can act as drivers to help organizations achieve strategic goals, increase staff productivity, manage risks and seize opportunities for organizational improvement and competitive advantages.

The Osborne Group Information Technology Principals work with senior management, technology leaders and staff to:

- Position IT to support and achieve organizational success
- Show how IT can increase effectiveness of day-to-day operations
- Effectively manage IT investments and ongoing costs

We help to:

- Develop strategies and plans that align technology enhancements with corporate strategy
- Balance deliverables and expenditures to achieve maximum value from IT investments
- Increase senior management understanding of the work and priorities of the IT function
- Provide consistent and strategic leadership for IT staff, clients & contractors
- Ensure the stability and availability of the technology infrastructure
- Assess and resolve issues with projects, vendors, or technical solutions
- Develop key performance measures
